San Francisco Estate Planning Council and Golden Gate University School of Law, LLM in Estate Planning, Trust, and Probate Program join together in presenting a morning symposium:

THE PANDORA'S BOX OF CAPACITY

The Planning and Applied Practice Considerations of Aging and Cognition

Friday, October 2, 2015   8:00 AM to 1:00 PM

With practitioners increasingly caught between the duties of confidentiality, professional conduct and the moral imperative to intervene in dementia-related situations, it appears once again the law is behind the times with an important societal phenomenon. This half-day symposium featuring keynote speakers as well as panel discussions will explore the legal, emotional, and applied practice considerations of aging and cognition in our client bases.
