“Why Should Estate Planners Care About Circular 230 and the Office of Professional Responsibility?”

Karen L. Hawkins, the Director of the IRS's Office of Professional Responsibility (OPR), will be here from her Washington D.C office to:

- Describe the OPR disciplinary process
- Highlight existing provisions and new revisions to Circular 230 which should be of particular interest to estate planners
- Discuss OPR's 2012 initiatives

Ms. Hawkins has been Director of the IRS Office of Professional Responsibility (OPR) since April, 2009. She was formerly in private practice as a Member of Taggart & Hawkins, P.C., and brings 30 years of private practice experience to her IRS position.
